

A Beautiful Restoration, the second in a trilogy, tells the story of God's redeeming power over human fallacy, brokenness and the ongoing account of what grace in action can look like. Woven through the pages of time is one woman's story of God's desire to faithfully reveal Himself in both the joy and sorrow of one's heart. It's a story of life and choice and faith. But most of all it's a story of His great love—a love that consumes not only her life but all of those who come in contact with it.
