

Critical Inquiries into Truth is an eclectic collection of articles written by Anadi on a wide range of subjects related to the spiritual path. The articles cover topics such as the true meaning of enlightenment, the art of meditation, the purpose of suffering, what lies beyond morality, the concept of self-love, and the intricacies of self-realization. They also dispel many deeply ingrained spiritual myths, including misguided notions of non-duality, simplistic visions of transcendence, and the harmful denial or repression of our human self. The teaching of Anadi creates a new vision of spiritual evolution based on our evolution into "wholeness," a multilayered realization of our soul, which in turn embraces our human identity as its natural expression.
