

How good it is to learn from the experiences of others! Whether it is a father telling his child that playing in the road is dangerous, a teacher helping her class struggle to put a current event into perspective, or a loving friend offering a bit of wisdom on marriage, it is so good to gain from the knowledge of those who have travelled down life's many roads before. These devotionals are born of such experience. They are written by your friends, co-workers, and family. They speak of God's abiding love and grace to mankind. They warn of the exceeding craftiness of the enemy, and they route us down paths of wisdom that can only come from having been there. And while a guide such as this is not a substitute for studying God's Word, it really should whet our appetites for a deeper discovery of God. Dig in and learn from these Devotionals for March 2013 or anytime.
