

Jude Kash's life was filled with abused animals and too little sleep. His work at the We Are One Foundation brought him his new devil-dog Teddy Bear and his new obsession: an abused liger named Sampson. Sampson suffered from poor living conditions and threats with a gun. Jude, or Kash to his friends, witnessed it first hand when he snuck onto Whitman's, Sampson's owner's, property. When Kash and others from the We Are One Foundation finally make a plan to rescue poor Sampson things go terribly wrong. When Kash finally regains consciousness he awoke to a very handsome and naked man taking care of him. Kash felt a connection with the man he couldn't explain. The man introduced himself as Maj and explained everything except for one small detail of his life: he was Sampson, a liger shifter. Kash took the news considerably well except for one problem... that detail wasn't so small, in fact, it could cost Kash his life.
