Lady Gaga has much versatility as a singer and performer. In a duet with Tony Bennett she did a jazz version of "The Lady is a Tramp." Doing jazz fits her like a comfortable glove and you'd think she had been doing it for several years. Even more diversity can be seen in a performance she did with Jennifer Nettles of Sugarland which turned into a Jam Session. As with any Jam session it was a raucous event. Another side of Gaga was a Thanksgiving special she did and her thoughts on family togetherness.
