The novel's main protagonists, in order to win a large sum of money that has been wagered, try to find the answer to a question that has remained unanswered for almost 2,000 years: Did Jesus spend three days and three nights in the tomb, as he had foretold, or was he really only there from Friday afternoon until the early hours of Sunday morning? Some might think the question pointless and in their turn ask the question: Does it matter? After reading the story it will become clear to the reader that, yes, it really does matter!Do you know the exact time of Jesus's birth and death, which is not known even by the Pope or by US TOP AUTHORS OF RELIGIOUS BOOKS?
