Not illustrated. 1892 Excerpt: ...he launched into the mercantile business on his own account. He finally drifted into the lumbering business in Canada, continuing then; until he came to Bay City in March, 1811. At that time Bay City had a population of about ten thousand, and here Mr. McLennan engaged in the lumber business, and for the first ten years was employed in taking square and long timber from the woods, doing most of his work in the woods. At the expiration of that time he went into the general lumber business, selling at wholesale entirely, and has continued in the same line ever since, doing a great deal of shipping over the main line of the railroad. He gives employment the year round to twenty hands, and ships during the year from three to five million feet of lumber. Besides his large lumber interests Mr. McLennan has quite an interest in fanning and farm lands in Frazer and Garfield Townships, having improved farms in the former which he devotes to general farming, being quite successful in this line of business. Mr. McLennan is a sagacious, thrifty and persevering man. and is held in the highest respect for his square dealing with all with whom he comes in contact. The happy marriage of Mr. McLennan was celebrated at the home of the brides parents at Montreal, Canada, October 4, 1863, the lady to whom he was united being Miss Marian Hornby, and they have been blessed by the births of the following children: James M.. residing in Duluth; William, who is in his fathers office; Alice, Frances and Harry. field where he has made a success and embark in an entirely different line of thought and labor, yet the profession of teaching gives a man a better preparation for a successful career in law or medicine than almost any other line of work. Among the many able and bril...
