

The smart, fun and easy way to build your vocabulary and acting skills simultaneously! Introducing Smart Monologues, Vocabulary Building Monologues for Teens and Young Adults. A valuable new tool for the classroom or independent practice. Each monologue is written to define a specific vocabulary word within the context of the action. The meaning of the word is then reinforced! Valuable vocabulary words such as quiescent, xenophobia, loquacious and redolent, among others, are all featured in Smart Monologues! Act them out in a group setting, such as a Language Arts class or Drama class. A team of students can help one another learn while having fun. Perform them at home for your friends and family. Read them aloud to yourself. Act them out in front of a mirror. Recite them while taking a shower. Whether you perform them yourself or watch others perform them, these comedic and sometimes dramatic monologues will make the vocabulary words memorable and meaningful. Build your vocabulary! Build your Acting Skills! Learn and have fun at the same time!
