

Jeffrey Parker is obsessed with an obscure 20th and 21st century comics hero named Peter Parker and names his son after him. Taking his obsession perhaps a bit too far, he experimented on his son with radioactive spider-bites until his son was nine feet tall, six armed, and frickin angry. Peter Parker killed his father and went to play bass and do security for an intergalactic touring band. This is his last will and testament before the bands final, illegal tour.
