

We must find our identity in Jesus and in Him alone. In order to do so, we must allow the Father to uncover whatever we are holding back from Jesus. No matter where we are in our walk with the Lord it is suffice to say no one has passion for Jesus like the Father does. I have confidence that the fire of the Father's love is coming to melt our frozen hearts; areas that are obstinate toward Jesus. As a precursor I believe the hammer of His prophetic word is being released now to break apart our hearts of stone, which will then enable us to receive this amazing love. Consider this book a hammer.
